THE THOROUGHBRED

THE THOROUGHBRED depicts in words and pictures our life at the University of Louisville.

With pride in the University Family, which consists of the administration, faculty, students and the community, we have worked together to make the University of Louisville one of the leading universities in the south. The University, as it is today, is deserving of this revered place in our hearts due to its accomplishments which are well known throughout the nation. It is respected for its academic standards, famous for its athletic honors, and holds an enviable place among the professional schools in the nation.

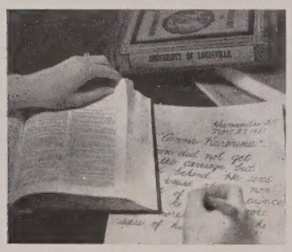

The students, however, have more than these things to remember about our University. Some of the less important events seem to acquire more importance as we think of finishing our college career. In future years, we will continue to appreciate the friends with whom we have shared our college days. The numerous opportunities for student participation in the activities of the University have made our role in the University Family more meaningful. We will remember the thrill of anticipation before that extra special dance, the greetings on Howdy Walk, the over-crowded open houses, the hoarse voices after the big games, and the all night gab sessions, not to mention the late hours of studying before the fatal exam week.

Words and pictures cannot be expected to recall all the typical collegiate activities or to recapture for us all the laughter and joys experienced individually during our years at the University of Louisville. Yet it is our wish that in years to come this book will help us to recall the memorable days of the university life during the school year of 1951 and 1952.

DEDICATION

With the deepest appreciation and an immeasurable amount of gratitude, we dedicate the 1952 Thoroughbred to Hilda Threlkeld and Morton Walker.

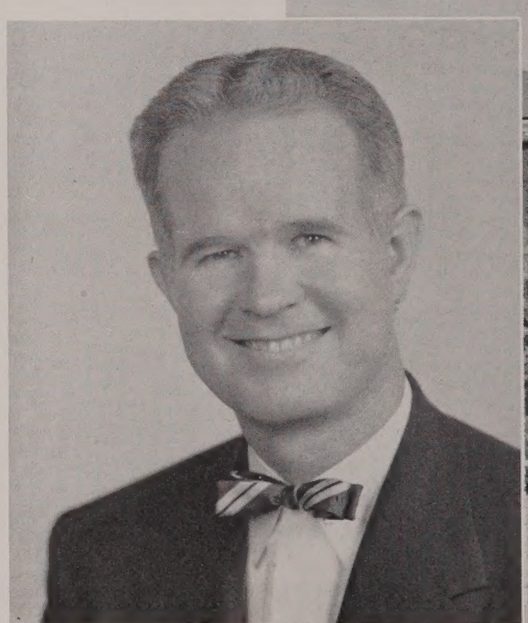

The students who have been at the University of Louisville during the past few years will long remember their friendly invitations to relax in those famous "red leather chairs" for an afternoon chat, their welcomed presence at the many student meetings though their schedules were already over-loaded for the day, their warm greetings at the many dances and social events during the year, but, most of all, the students will never forget their interest and understanding for each individual student who was a part of the University.

It is with sincere hope that the future years will find both Hilda Threlkeld and Morton Walker at the University of Louisville.

Hilda Threlkeld

Morton Walker

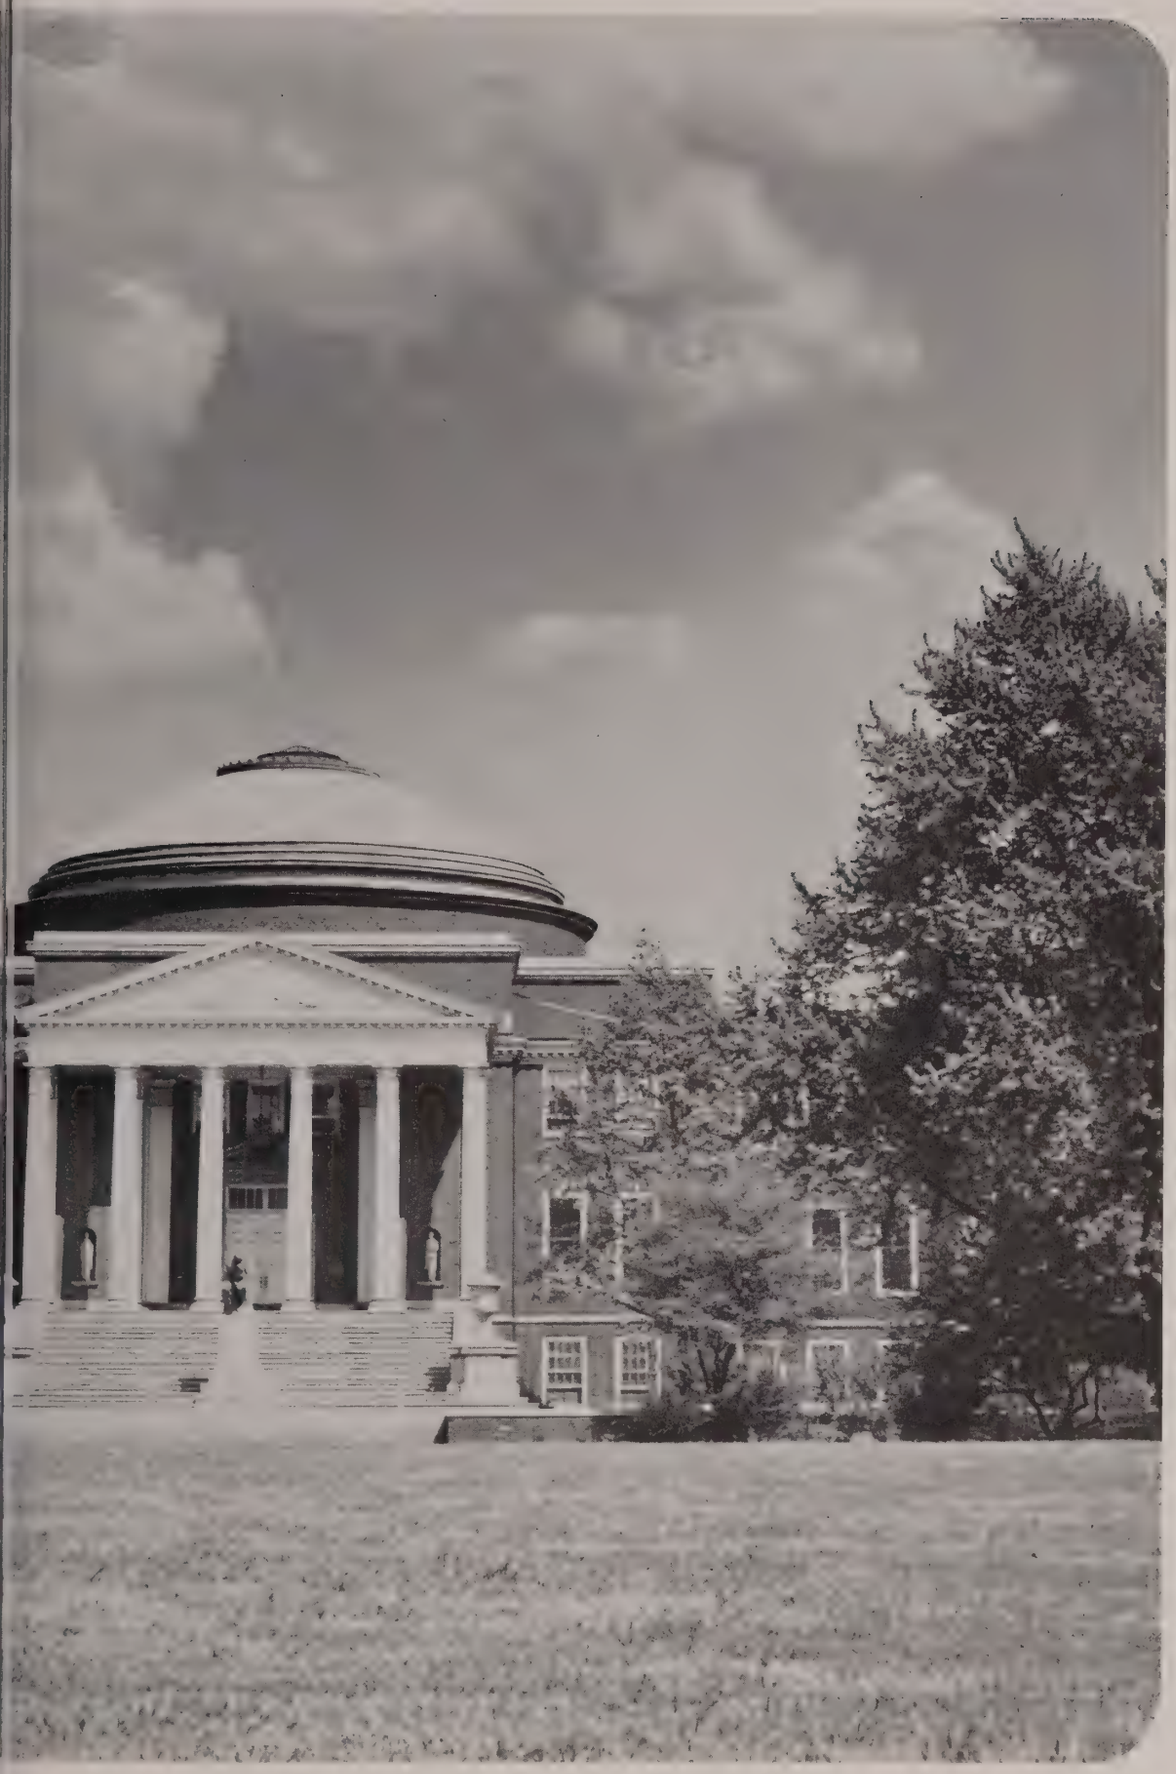

Hilda Threlkeld, Dean of Women, is admired by all the women students of the University for her active interest in promoting the education of women. Many of us have heard her favorite slogan, "Remember, when you educate a woman, you also educate a family!" Though she also has the responsibilities of being the Acting Head of the Department of Education and is active in several large national organizations, Dean Threlkeld has done more than her share for the University of Louisville.

Dr. Hilda Threlkeld received her A.B. from Transylvania College, M.A. from the University of Kentucky, Ph.D. from Columbia University and LL.D. from Transylvania College.

Morton Walker left his duties as Dean of Men during this year to become Assistant to the President. David Lawrence, the present Dean of Men, has readily assumed the responsibilities which had long been a part of Mr. Walker's daily life.

Morton Walker will long be remembered for his most pleasant personality, his interest in the students and his constant work to make the University of Louisville an even more desirable place for the students. The men students have many times been given this word of wisdom by Mr. Walker, "Without work, there is no real success!" Mr. Walker received his A.B. and M.A. from the University of Kentucky and has done graduate work at the University of California.

THE PRESIDENT

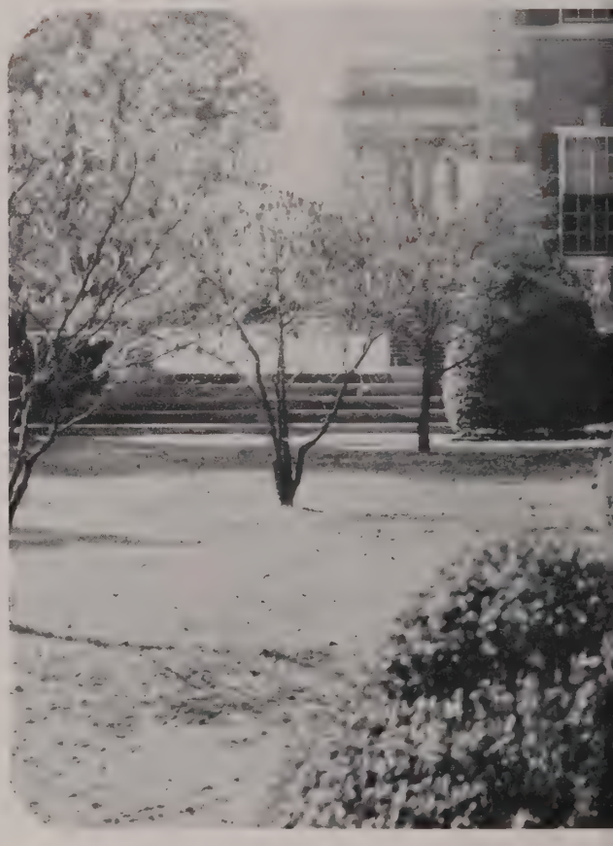

DR. PHILIP G. DAVIDSON

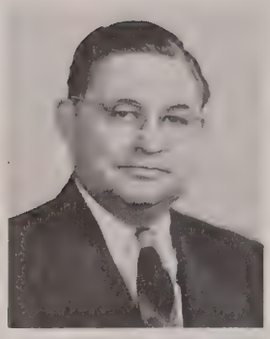

During his first year as President of the University of Louisville, Dr. Philip G. Davidson won the hearts of the students, faculty and community with his friendly manner and his sincere interest in the University Family. Dr. Davidson left his position as Provost of Vanderbilt University to accept his present position. He has also been Dean of Graduate School and Senior College at Vanderbilt since 1942.

Graduated from the University of Mississippi in 1922 with a B.S. degree with honors, President Davidson went to the University of Chicago where he received his M.A. and Ph.D. He has taught in the Mississippi county high schools, University of Illinois, and Agnes Scott College. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Omicron Delta Kappa, Albert Beveridge Fund Committee of the American Historical Association, Norton Infirmary Psychiatric Council, Board of Directors of the Louisville Philharmonic Society, Air University Library Advisory Board, Executive Committee of the Department of Higher Education of the National Education Association, Committee on Research and Creative Activity of the Southern University Conference, and the Committee on Faculty Research Grants of the Social Science Research Council.

In September, when the lengthening shadows stole across the campus, new freshmen arrived with anxious laughter while tired seniors worried about the forthcoming graduation. Again, that golden air of expectancy pervaded the University of Louisville as another school year began.

Sweaters, skirts and the crackling of autumn leaves beneath scuffed strollers marked this beginning as the familiar registration lines formed. Some students have passed, some have failed, but all students have registered!

Thick books foretelling long hours of studying were purchased and then to class where everyone vied for the seat in the back row, moaned over the preview of the semester's assignments, and soon realized that come rain or come shine the next few months had been well planned out.

CAMPUS HIGHLIGHTS

As long as possible, students take advantage of the sunny fall days during their in between class breaks for that last minute look at the book or a friendly chat.

CAMPUS HIGHLIGHTS

The highlight of the year was the impressive inauguration of our President, Dr. Philip G. Davidson. The new head of the University Family was formally welcomed by the students, faculty and the community during the ceremony in his honor at the Memorial Auditorium.

Friday noon was always reserved for pep rallies where the cheerleaders literally knocked themselves out arousing school spirit.

U. N. Day was celebrated by convo and afterward the students piled on a shiny red fire engine to roar through the city proclaiming the University of Louisville's international spirit.

CAMPUS HIGHLIGHTS

EACH YEAR through the International Center and Student Exchange Program the students of the University of Louisville actively participate in international relations. The "student ambassadors" who went abroad last year were: (left to right) Doris Schott, Ronald Mather, Ruth Uebele, Bernd Silver, Martha McIntosh, Ben Pence, Ruth Schimpler, Bill Mitchell.

The International Relations Club, open to all students, provides weekly programs of world interest to promote international knowledge, understanding, and good will.

NOVEL PARTIES, hearty handshakes and perplexed freshmen are sure signs that fraternity and sorority rush has begun.

Friendliness is the watchword of the fraternal groups while the rushees vacillate between impressing and being impressed. It is not with a small sigh of relief, however, when the day of decision arrives and each new pledge proudly receives his or her official pin.

A favorite social event of all the campus groups is the over-crowded but congenial open house where, according to the Campus Capers Column in the Cardinal, "a good time was had by all"!

Hobo picnics, gay ninety parties, and tug-of-war outings are just a few of the Campus events attended by the sudents throughout the year. The most popular, however, seems to be the costume party where anyone from Frankenstein to Huckleberry Finn might put in his appearance.

CAMPUS HIGHLIGHTS

STUDENT COUNCIL ELECTION DAY, as usual, found the campus flooded with colorful posters, free lemonade, and high-pressure salesmen. The result was many bewitched, bothered, and bewildered coeds.

A walk by the gym on a pretty day will reveal athletes actually enjoying "warming the bench"—battle scars and all.

CAMPUS HIGHLIGHTS

The old stone wall on Shipp Street is one of the favorite meeting places for all students during their free hours on campus.

THE SOUTHERN POLICE INSTITUTE, a regional training school for commanding and supervising police officers, originated on Belknap Campus in July 1950. David A. McCandless is the Director of the school which offers a certificate in Police Science and Administration.

The bustling energy in the Snack Bar is converted into silent industry in the library.

A LARGE MAJORITY of the University of Louisville students commute from home to school by means of cars, busses, thumb or smile.

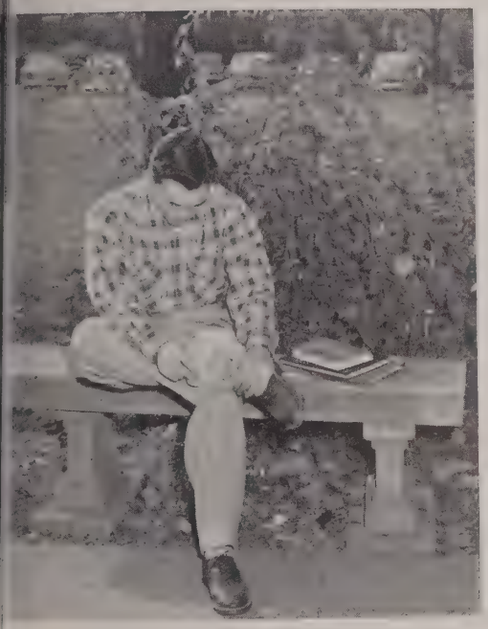

Many students, however, do live in the dormitories and rely on Uncle Sam's mail system for their contact with home.

HOMECOMING FESTIVITIES

On a chilly November 17th, the University of Louisville fans cheered the football team to a Homecoming victory of 14-7 over Washington and Lee. During the halftime, the Homecoming Queen, Oneida Carden, received the traditional red roses from Dr. Davidson.

THE 1951 HOMECOMING FESTIVITIES included the traditional parade through the city and the pep rally staged around the bonfire on campus early Friday night. The pep rally was followed by a Donut Dance given in the rotunda of the Administration Building. This dance, an added event to the usual activities, was sponsored by Mortar Board and Omicron Delta Kappa and provided free music and refreshments.

Early Saturday morning, all fraternity and sorority houses were decorated in honor of Homecoming. The big game was enjoyed by many during the afternoon and was followed by the 1951 Homecoming Dance at the Madrid on Saturday night.

HOMECOMING FESTIVITIES

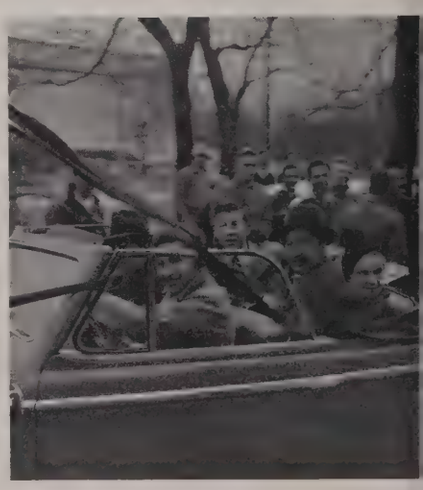

Upper—Kappa Delta really got the horseshoe of roses as the first place winner in the women's competition with their "Bet on a Sure Thing —U of L"

Lower—The Chi Omega's came 'falling' in second place with their "Burn 'em up, Smoke 'em out, Leave 'em smouldering".

Upper—The Eagle and Anchor Society copped the first place trophy in the men's groups with their mechanical interpretation of " 'Generally' speaking—Old soldiers get it in the end".

Lower—Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity came 'dragon' in second with their monstrous animal and their slogan, "We're dragon Washington and Lee"

AFTER STAYING UP all night hammering, painting, and adding the last minute touches, members of the various organizations on campus proudly displayed their colorful productions in the Homecoming Parade and House Decorations. No one envied the judge's position of choosing the winners but the pep and fun involved in the weekend's activities well compensated for any unwon trophy.

THE HOMECOMING DANCE climaxed another annual celebration to welcome the alumni of the University of Louisville. During the dance, the happy winners received their trophies for their contributions to this year's Homecoming Festivities.

Upper—Sigma Kappa Sorority worked themselves into a big enough "lather" to win first place honors in the women's groups.

Lower—Pi Beta Phi ensnared the second place trophy in their spider web.

Upper—Phi Kappa Tau "pestered" themselves into first place position in the men's groups.

Lower—Lambda Chi Alpha sailed off with the second place trophy.

Holidays always find the social calendar crammed with parties.

The goose got loose but this was during the wrong season.

OPENING OF THE BASKETBALL SEASON

The greatest of all basketball seasons at the University of Louisville began on December 1, 1951 when the Cardinals defeated Kentucky Wesleyan at the Armory and ended with a bid to participate in the N. I. T. in New York.

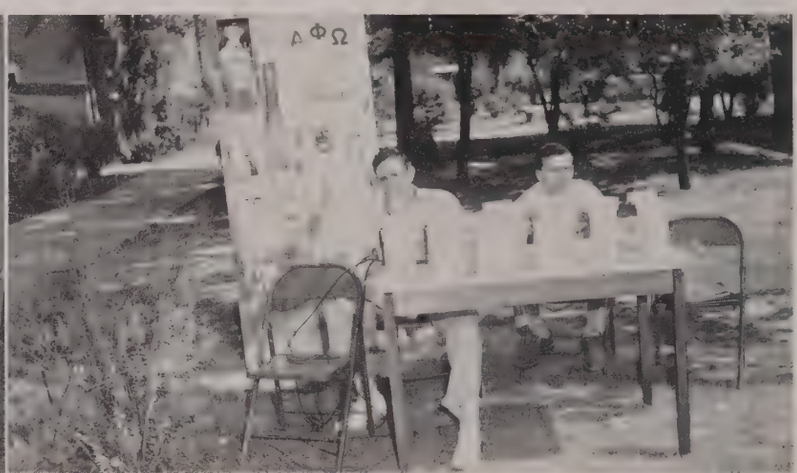

COOPERATIVE COMPETITION

A SEEMING PARADOX is the cooperative competition manifested in many campus events. The participants cooperate not only within their individual groups in the effort to win but also with their competitors to make the activities of the University a success. Some such events are Fryberger Sing, the Barbershop and Beautyshop Quartet Contest, the Ugliest Man and Woman Contest, the Booster Trophy Award, and All University Day.

Sigma Kappa and Lambda Chi Alpha placed first among the contestants in the Quartet Contest in Spring of 1951. Larry Whitehouse, Pi Kappa Phi, and the Keith twins, Phyllis and Arlene, of Chi Omega were the proud recipients of the Ugliest Man and Woman trophy. The contest was sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega Fraternity and the proceeds were donated to the Student Chest Drive.

Parasols, pie-smeared faces, cotton candy, barkers, and novel booths heralded the All University Day Carnival of 1951. This day was sponsored by the University Student Council for the purpose of bringing all the schools of the University together for a yearly celebration.

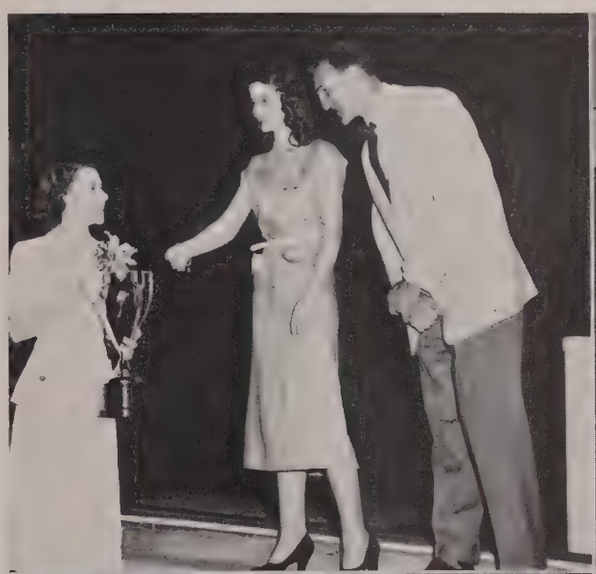

Chi Omega, for the second consecutive year, and the Eagle and Anchor Society won the Cardinal Booster Trophies at the end of the 1951 Basketball Season for being the most loyal boosters of the basketball team.

FRYBERGER SING, SPRING 1951

ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL EVENTS of the year is the Annual Fryberger Sing which is held in honor of the late Agnes Fryberger, a former music teacher at University of Louisville. The Sing is held on the lawn in front of the Administration Building on Belknap Campus. The singers fill the cool night air with their voices while the other students, faculty, friends and relatives relax and enjoy the selections.

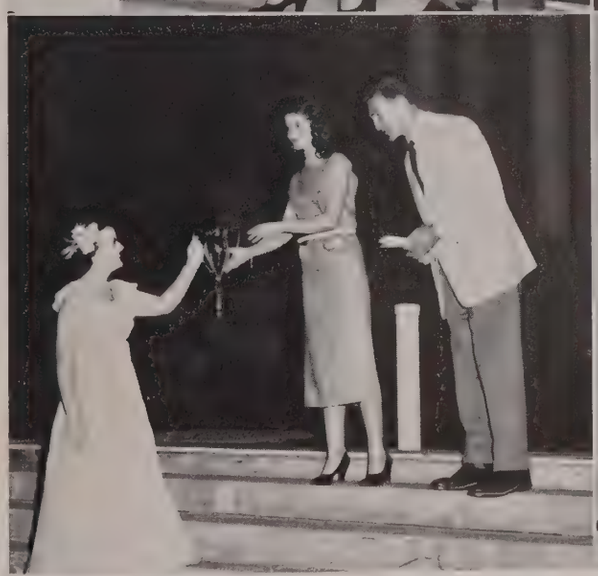

Lambda Chi Alpha and Sigma Kappa were designated the first place winners while Kappa Delta and Phi Chi, Medical School Fraternity, walked off with the second place trophies.

Pat Conboy, Sigma Kappa director, accepts the first place trophy for the women's group singing. They sang "When Johnnie Comes Marching Home".

Jim Almand, director for Lambda Chi Alpha, and his fraternity brothers admire their first place trophy for their rendition of "Yesterdays".

Kappa Delta director, Fay Gupton, receives the second place trophy for their singing of "Green Cathedral".

Jim Parker, Phi Chi director, admires his second place trophy. The Phi Chis sang "Winter Song".

TOWARD THE END of the Spring Semester, students and faculty alike seek relief from the stuffy classrooms on a lazy cruise down the Ohio River via the boatride sponsored annually by the Arts and Science Student Council.

THE BIG EVENTS which have been pictured here have made our year great but some of the little events have made it all the more worth remembering!

CAMPUS PERSONALITIES

TOM WETTERER,
Lambda Chi Alpha

Popularity with the coeds determines who will receive the title of Mr. Thoroughbred. Tom's blonde hair, clear blue eyes and a pleasant personality won the votes of the girls of the University.

MR. AND MISS THOROUGHBRED

CANDIDATES for the title of Mr. and Miss Thoroughbred were presented at the Annual Thoroughbred Coronation Ball by Douglas Sanford, Chairman of the Dance. Norma Ridgway, editor of the yearbook, officially announced Tom Wetterer and Ann Jones Bowling as the winners of the contest and presented them with their trophies.

The Thoroughbred Staff has enjoyed working under the reign of their popular King and Queen, Tom and Ann.

ANN JONES BOWLING

ONEIDA CARDEN, Chi Omega, reigned as the Queen of the Homecoming Festivities. Her radiant smile is a clear indication of why the football team bestowed this honor upon her.

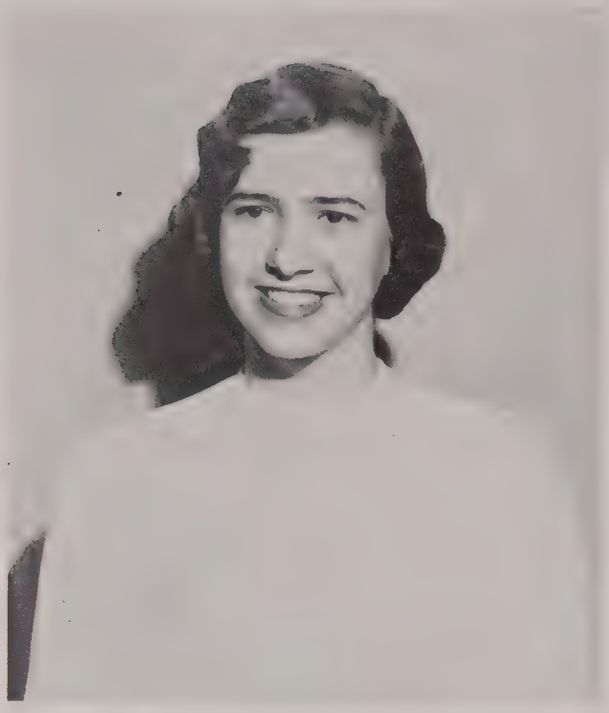

WITH A HAPPY WAVE to all spectators, Oneida led the Homecoming Parade through the streets of Louisville. On Saturday afternoon, Dr. Davidson Officially introduced her to the fans at the Homecoming Game and presented her with flowers. As a climax to her reign, Oneida led the royal dance that evening with the dignity and grace of a true Queen.

LEADERSHIP CAMP was the first project of the University Student Council for the year. Members of the Council, presidents of all active organizations, and faculty members met to discuss campus problems and policies for the school year. President Davidson, along with other prominent people concerned with the future of the University, spoke to the group and joined them later in a square dance in the lodge. The theme of his speech was to promote the feeling of the University Family.

EAGLE AND ANCHOR SOCIETY

THE EAGLE AND ANCHOR SOCIETY is a semi-professional social fraternity of Midshipmen, now completing its fourth year at the University of Louisville. Already, the Eagle and Anchor Society has proved itself one of the outstanding organizations on campus. It's most prominent achievements for the past year were first place honors for the Homecoming float in the annual parade, and the Intramural Football Championship. Besides fielding teams for all intramural sports, the Eagle and Anchor also sponsored two formal dances, have their own Glee Club and their own publications, the weekly "Masthead" and the NROTC yearbook, "The Buccaneer".

NAVAL RESERVE OFFICERS TRAINING CORPS

FROM A CORP of one-hundred and sixty-three midshipmen, the largest enrollment since its organization in 1946, the NROTC Unit at the University of Louisville will graduate twenty men. Of these, sixteen will be commissioned as Ensigns in the regular Navy, three will receive Ensign commission in the Naval Reserve and one man will be appointed a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps.

Highlights of the Navy's year were the annual summer cruises, the establishment of an excellent drill team and the Red Cross blood drive to which ninety-five per cent of the Midshipmen contributed. This year, for the first time in the Corps history, the Midshipmen here were issued officers khakis and shoulderboards.

Captain E. R. Hannon, Professor of Naval Science, was assisted in his first year at the University of Louisville by a staff of officers consisting of Lt. Col. J. R. Blackwell, LCDR C. A. Hoffman, Lt. J. M. Prewitt, Lt. R. E. Scholl, Lt. A. G. Back and Captain W. S. Patee.

DURING THE YEAR 1951-52 the AFROTC grew to an enrollment of three hundred and twenty Cadets. Upon graduation in June, seven of these men will be commissioned as Second Lieutenants in the United States Air Force. This is the first group to be commissioned since the unit was set up here in 1949.

The formation of a Drill Team and new blue uniforms for the entire corps were additions during the year. Activities sponsored by the University of Louisville Corps of Cadets are their unit newspaper, a radio station, the Arnold Air Society, and a rifle team.

With Col. I. B. Anderson as Commanding Officer and Professor of Air Science and Tactics, the University watched the Corp in its continued growth and influence on the campus. Col. Anderson is assisted by Major Hugh J. Ray, Major Andrew J. Walton, Capt. A. W. Miracle, Capt. D. R. Dawson, Capt. L. Gramham, and Sergeants F. G. Buongiorne, C. B. Powell, H. G. Ralston, C. A. Mandich, H. W. Brandon, John H. Frantz, and J. L. Field.

AIR FORCE RESERVE OFFICERS TRAINING CORPS

WITH THE PURPOSE of developing leadership, maintaining esprit de corps of the unit and advancing the military preparedness of our country, the Arnold Air Society was formed at the University of Cincinnati in October of 1950. Shortly afterwards the Tommy Mantell Squadron was formed here at the University of Louisville. Open to junior and senior AFROTC students only, it is the only national service organization of its kind. One of the highlights of the A.A.S.'s year was their Annual Conclave at Miami, Florida, to which some of the members flew down with their advisor, Major A. J. Walton.

SPORTS

FOOTBALL

THERE IS NO COMEBACK like the comeback of a champion. Battered to the floor and forsaken by everyone but himself, he rises from defeat and returns to action with a new enthusiasm to conquer all before him.

That is, in essence, the story of the 1951 University of Louisville football team. Badly battered in the early season by four consecutive losses and forsaken by all but themselves, the coaches and a few faithful followers, they swept to victory in the last four games of the season making the greatest comeback in the history of the University.

PROBABLY NO NAME in the "comeback kids" register is any more well known than "the kid from Pittsburg," Johnny Unitas. Leading a downtrodden team back to victory with his superb passing and fine field generalship, Unitas is one man who makes the future football picture bright.

All the praise, however, should not go to Mr. Sparkplug, as the players call him, because others were great in the return trail. On the offensive side, Jim Williams at fullback position was the other half of the Cards' two fisted ground and air attack. In the offensive line, Otto Knop, Kenny Anderson, Gene Massero, Rex Warner, Gerry Ray and Leroy Holben came through in great style.

Ole automatic Dave Rivenbark was a tower of strength for those extra points.

On the defensive side, the steady play of Bill Karns, Roy Pugh, Dave Rivenbark and Joe Nicoletti was a stand out. In the rough going defensive line, freshmen Bob Bender and Les Rechtin were the sparks that got the line back on its feet. Also helping in that improved defensive wall were ends Frank Grdnic and Mike Dewald, and guards Jack Gillam, Bob Lichvar and "Mr. Dependable", Chuck Asher. Linebackers Razor Myers and Jack Valvo never let down when the team got going.

Truly it was the comeback of a champion that returned the Cards to the victory ledger against the most hopeless odds and worst conditions. Who can forget that N. C. State win in the snow, that marvelous offensive burst against Houston, or that sterling defensive game against Washington and Lee, and that final mudcake win over Mississippi Southern! Yes, truly, it was the comeback of a champion.

1951 FOOTBALL SEASON

WAYNE

Detroit, Michigan, September 29

The Louisville Cards, displaying a powerful land game, ground out a methodical 28-12 win over homestanding Wayne University. The Cards offense was led by their trio of block-busting backs, John Brewer, Jim Williams and Bill Pence.

Louisville never trailed as Brewer crossed the double strip in the first quarter and automatic Dave Rivenbark kicked the first of four extra points. Nicoletti, Pence and Brewer again scored the other Louisville six pointers.

BOSTON

Louisville, October 5

In a game billed as a tossup, the Boston Terriers ruined the Louisville home-opener 39-7 before 11,500 fans. It was Boston's Harry Agganis' passing and quarterbacking that upset the Redbird applecart. Boston threatened to turn the game into a rout as the Terriers ran up a three touchdown halftime score and a 39-0 third quarter lead. Louisville saved face in the final period as they marched 72 yards to score with the "Sweet Somerset Bulldozer", Jim Williams, getting the credit for the score.

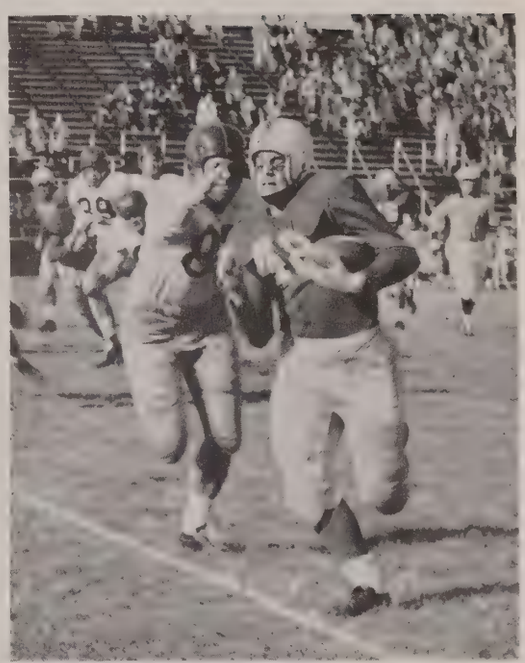

CINCINNATI

Cincinnati, Ohio, October 13

Cincinnati's well balanced Bearcats hung the first shutout which the University of Louisville had suffered since 1948 as the Ohioians were victorious 38-0.

The game played before 18,000 fans was decided by a powerful second half burst that gave Cincinnati its big margin victory. The first half found the Cards effectively stopping ace passer Gene Rossi's aerials but not the powerful running combine of Bob Daugerty and Bullet Bob Stratton. In the second half, Rossi began to hit with his passes and it was just too much for the offensively impotent Cards. Cincinnati scored three times in the third quarter and once in the final period to win 38-0. The farthest offensive penetration of the Cards was to the Cincy 35 in the second quarter.

XAVIER

Louisville, October 19

Displaying an unpenetrable line and a host of fine backs, the Xavier Musketeers unmercifully ground out a 47-6 win over Louisville. The Cardinals were never in the ball game as Xavier's offensive line opened huge holes in Louisville's defense which let the Xavier's backs, led by Bob Finnell, move for yardage.

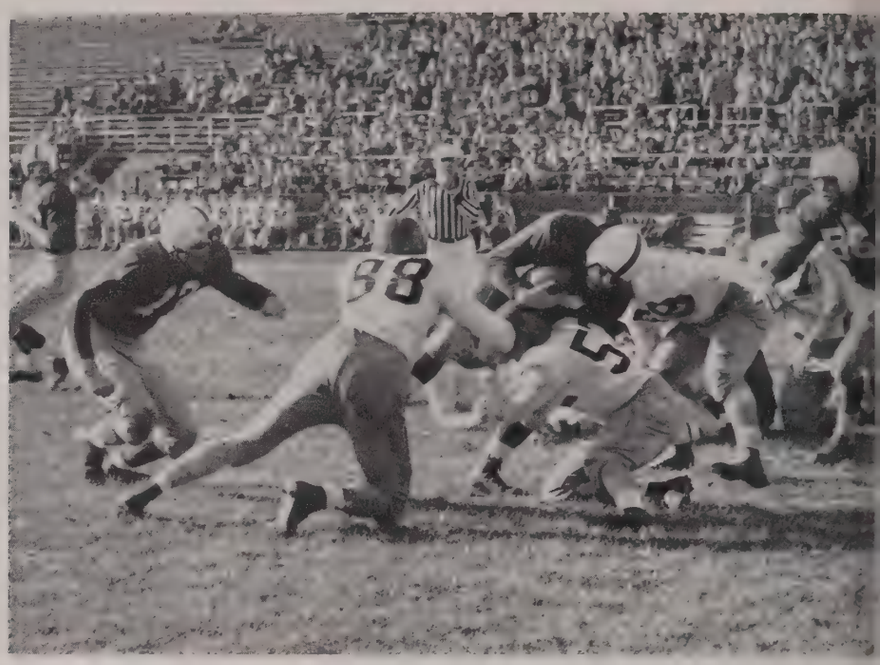

The Cards' complete lack of any air game was illustrated in this ball game as the Xavier line was in tight and just stopped Louisville power backfield from ever moving. Louisville's only score came in the final quarter and was tallied by Jimmy Williams.

ST. BONAVENTURE

Olean, New York, October 27

A field goal in the final seconds by St. Bonaventure's Lou Czarza gave the Bonnies a 22-21 victory over the visiting Louisville Cards. The field goal wiped out a magnificent second half Louisville rally which found the Cards coming from behind to lead 21-19. But Czarza's three pointer turned victory into defeat.

Johnny Unitas, was the leader of the Cards rally as he passed for three touchdowns, two to Roy Pugh and one to Bill Karns.

NORTH CAROLINA STATE — LOUISVILLE, NOVEMBER 2

In a ball game played in 19 degree weather and on a turf covered with two inches of snow, Louisville upset highly favored North Carolina State 26-2.

State scored first when John Unitas fumbled in the Louisville end zone for a safety and two points for State. The opportunity for the safety came after the Cards had stopped two State offensive drives on the Cardinal two and six yard lines.

Late in the second period Bill Karns scored on a beautiful 82 yard punt return to give Louisville a 6-2 halftime lead. The third quarter was a stand off but the fourth found Louisville turning the game into a rout. Jim Williams' running set up the second Louisville TD that Babe Ray scored. Shortly later the "Sweet Somerset Bulldozer Williams" blasted 43 yards to pay dirt, and Babe Ray completed the rout by scampering 48 yards to score.

HOUSTON — LOUISVILLE, NOVEMBER 10

"The Kid from Pittsburg", Johnny Unitas, came into his own as he passed the Louisville Cards to a 35-28 win over the powerful Houston Cougars.

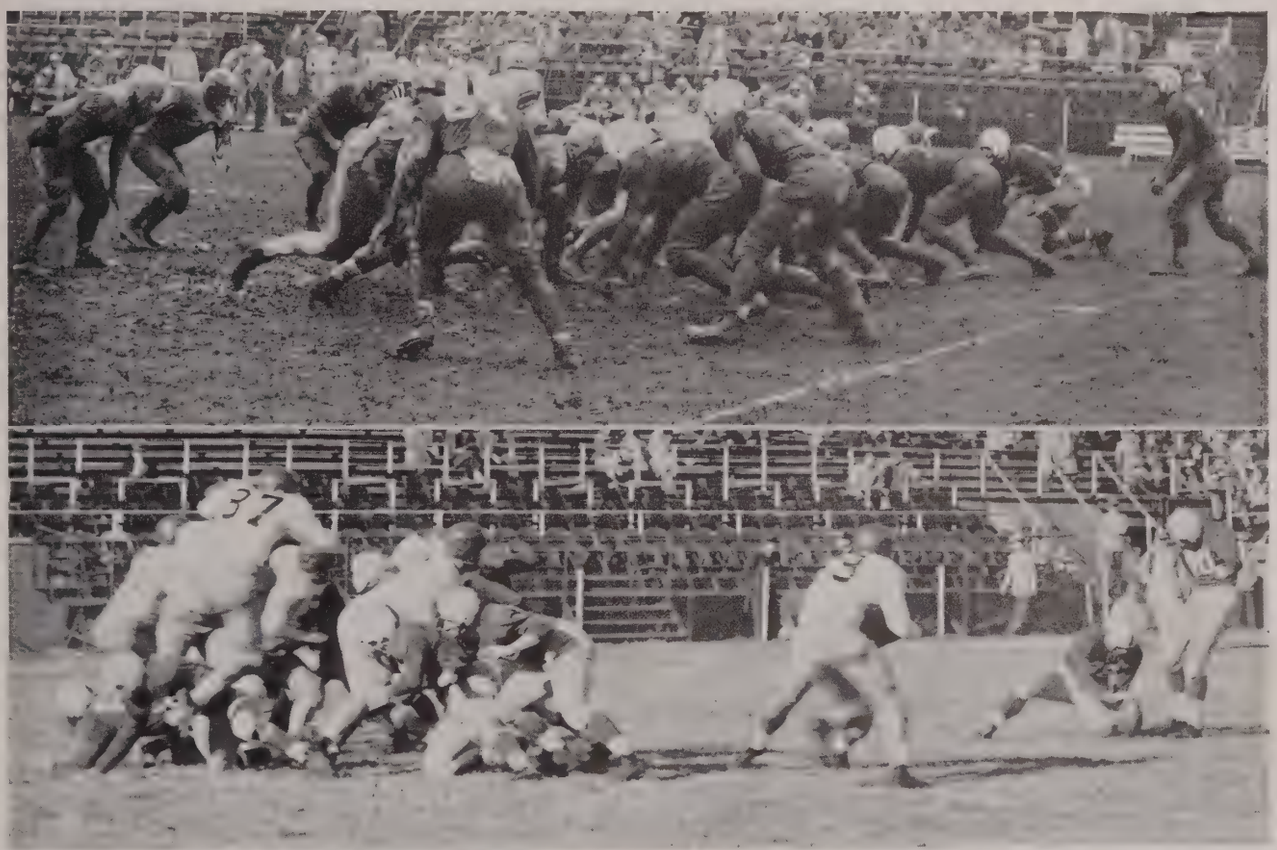

Houston scored first in the opening minutes as Gene Shannon tallied but then Unitas took over. He passed to Bill Karns and Dave Rivenbark for touchdowns and a 14-7 halftime lead. It was 21-7 when Jim Williams on a series of pitchouts from Unitas ran to the one for a tally that Bill Karns scored. Houston tied it up as Shannon scored twice more. Then Unitas put the game on ice by passing to Rivenbark for a 48 scoring play and moments later threw from his own end zone for a 93 yard scoring play to Babe Ray. Houston scored in the final moments to make it 35-28 but Unitas had already won the game for Louisville.

WASHINGTON AND LEE — LOUISVILLE, NOVEMBER 16

The Cards made it three wins in a row as they pulled their third successive upset by defeating Washington and Lee 14-7.

It was a magnificent defense that stopped W and L seven times inside the 15 yard line that won the Homecoming game for the Cards. Defensive line play by Frank Grdnic, Mike Dewald, Bob Bender, and Les Rechtin was obvious to the Louisville fans.

Unitas ruined W and L's number one national pass defense record in the first quarter as John passed 66 yards to Babe Ray and a Louisville score. The defense took over and there was no more scoring until Jim Williams took the second half opening kickoff 100 yards and pay dirt. Louisville defense weakened in the final quarter to let the Generals' Frank Broyles score but that was the Generals only tally for the day.

MISSISSIPPI SOUTHERN

LOUISVILLE, NOVEMBER 22

On the strength of automatic Dave Rivenbark's two extra points, the Louisville Cards out-mudded Mississippi Southern 14-13.

Louisville scored twice quickly in the opening quarter. Jim Williams plunged over from due five and Unitas passed to Kenny Anderson. Then the Cards made the lead stand up as they played a tight game trying not to make any mistakes on the muddy turf. Southern scored twice in the second half but missed the first extra point attempt when the hard charging Louisville line hurried the Southern attempt.

BASKETBALL

THE BASKETBALL SEASON OF 1951-52 was perhaps the greatest in the history of the University of Louisville. Coach Peck Hickman's cagers won 20 of 25 games against the nation's toughest opposition and got a berth in a major post season tournament for the second consecutive year.

The season began mildly enough as Louisville beat Kentucky Wesleyan 61-50. However, a few nights later, the Cards whipped Dayton, in an overtime, 79-76, and followed this with easy wins over Marquette 76-63 and Georgetown 92-38. Next was the spine tingling 72-70 victory over Eastern when Loch broke a knee cartilage. Without Loch, the Cards suffered their worst defeat of the season when they lost to Purdue 82-65. Louisville rebounded quickly in their next outing to bounce Kent State 85-67. (Continued on next page)

Coach, Peck Hickman

Assistant Coach, John Dromo

The Christmas holidays found the Redbirds making an Eastern swing playing Manhattan in Madison Square Gardens and Seton Hall at South Orange, New Jersey. Bob Lockmueller's goal in the final second gave Louisville a 67-66 win over Manhattan, but two nights later, Seton Hall eked out a 67-65 victory. Returning to the Armory, Louisville blasted Villanova 90-68 in probably the Cards' finest game of the season. Notre Dame was then beaten in a rough game, 65-59, and in quick succession, Xavier 77-67, St. Joe 104-54, William and Mary 93-65, North Carolina State 73-68 and Morehead 83-63. Loyola also fell to the conquering Cards, 80-73, before 19,500 cager fans in Chicago.

At this point seven-foot Bob Peterson, who had come along quickly during Louisville's mid season victory streak, was declared scholastically ineligible. The Cards did not seem to miss him too much when they bounced Eastern 78-73 but a day or so later when Dayton revenged the earlier Louisville defeat by winning at the Armory 72-71, big Pete's height was sorely missed. However, the Cards rebounded to murder Tampa 100-55 and made Kentucky Wesleyan victory number eighteen by a score of 97-76.

A second trip to the East was a failure as Villanova tripped the Cards 86-84 but back at Louisville the Cards won two of the last three games. N. C. State fell 82-67, Seton Hall two pointed the Cards again, this time 83-81, and in the season's finale, Xavier fell under a barrage of baskets 101-87.

The final record of Louisville earned them a bid to the National Invitational Tournament in New York. The old rival from Bowling Green, Western Kentucky, was the opening round opponent and when the Cards, far off form after a ten day layoff, lost 62-59, the defeat was doubly bitter.

Even though Louisville lost in the tournament, the season was one of the finest both from a prestige and gate view but, most important of all, also from an excitement point of view. All of the Cardinal fans will remember that overtime win over Dayton, the spine tingling two point Eastern victory, Loch's goal that meant success over Manhattan, Louisville's great performance against Villanova, the rough shod victory over Notre Dame, big Walter Dukes' long arms, and Bill Sullivan's goal that gave the 81-81 score against Seton Hall only to have the Pirates score with six seconds to go and win. The thrills of victory and the pangs of defeat were a dime a dozen in the season that was "ONE OF THE FINEST."

THROUGHOUT THE SEASON the Cards played with what might be called the "big nine". The following is a thumbnail sketch of the nine players who made the Louisville basketball season a successful one.

BOB LOCHMUELLER—The Cards' one-legged All American suffered a broken knee cartilage early in the season but played the year out in magnificent style. He was more than any one man. He was the "clutch" player on the squad as he always seemed to make the goals when they really counted. A magnificent rebounder, Loch was a proficient scorer near the boards with tips, spin shots and deadly one handers.

BOB BROWN—Called by the Louisville coaches as the Cards' finest professional prospect, the "Goose" had his greatest year. All Redbird fans will remember the seemingly unbelievable shots that Brown somehow managed to score. A colorful, aggressive performer, Brown along with Lochmueller was the Cards' top scorer with a hefty seventeen point average.

BOB NABER—"Burly Bob" was the Cardinals' jack of all trades. He played forward or guard and inadvertently drew the toughest of the defensive assignments. A team man from the word go, Naber's favorite play was a driving crip shot that literally dared anyone to get in his way. Naber also had a good one hander and was a rough man to out-rebound under the basket.

DICK ROBISON—Six feet, four inch, heavy set Robison was the Cards' chief pick off and block out man. Possessor of a fine hook shot, Robby's great attribute was his ability to set up shots and rebounds for his fellow Cardinals.

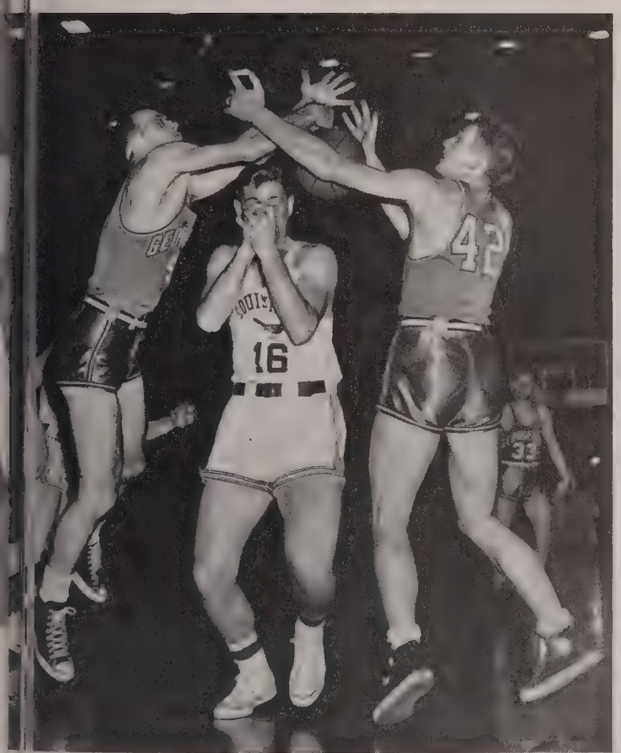

CHUCK NOBLE—Strictly in line with the new Louisville type player is the tall six feet, four inch Noble. Playing guard, Noble was often praised as the Cards' best assist man, and his deadly trajectatory one hand shot made him the third in the high scoring ranks on the squad. Only a sophomore, Chuck is one of the key figures in future Louisville basketball plans.

BILL SULLIVAN—The Cards' bit of pepper and fight was little Bill. A junior and the smallest man on the squad at five feet ten inches, Sullivan used a two hand set shot to great advantage. Louisville fans remember Sully for his performance against Villanova when he shackled Wildcat star, Larry Hennessey, while pitching in nineteen points for the Cardinals.

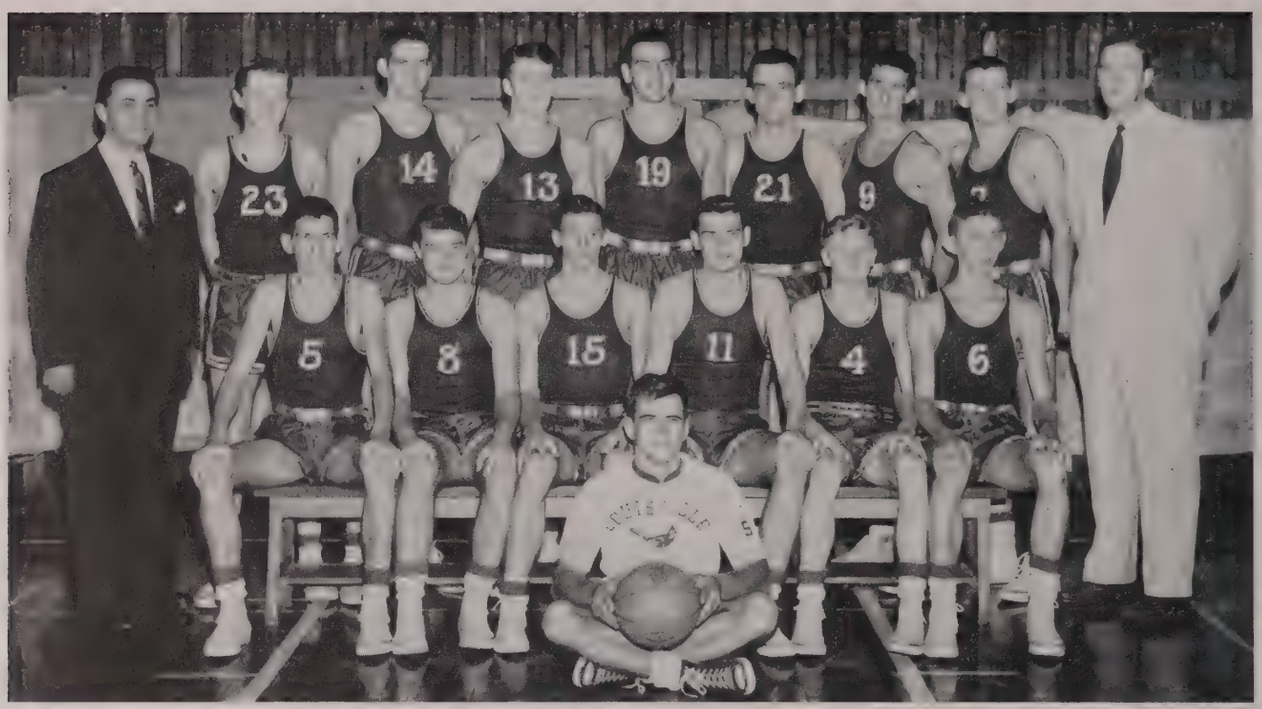

London Bridge?

CHET BEAM—Another tall, rangy performer is the six feet and five inch forward from Jeffersonville. Beam was one of the reasons the Cards had such a strong bench. Chet's best shot was a twenty foot one hander from the side which he dunked with proficient consistency.

FORREST ABLE—From the junior varsity to a starting job on the varsity is the story of Able, the Cards' great freshman. At the beginning of the season, Able was averaging a hefty twenty-six points with the freshman team when Coach Hickman pulled him up to the varsity. Frosty responded in a magnificent style which had fans literally gasping at his ability to score with forty-five foot set shots and driving one handers.

BOB PETERSON—Louisville's much talked about seven footer suffered scholastic difficulties and was dropped from the squad at mid term. At the start of the season Big Pete was just another bench warmer but after a few games he began to develop and earned Coach Hickman's praise as the most improved player on the squad. Certainly his loss affected the Cards' play in February.

1951-1952 FRESHMAN BASKETBALL TEAM

UNDEFEATED IN TWENTY-ONE GAMES is the record of Coach John Dromo's frosh squad. Using a whirlwind fast break and a devastating scoring attack, the freshmen on numerous occasions tallied over 100 points.

Near the basket, the frosh were powerful. Big Al Russak, Vlad Gastivich and Butch Hinton were rough men near the guards. Cliff York, Bobby Terrell and Harvey Johnson were expert shots and playmakers.

INTRAMURALS

Intramural athletics at the University of Louisville, under the supervision of Mr. Dave Lawrence and Mrs. Sherrill Brakmeier, enjoyed one of its finest seasons during the past school year. The biggest change in the program was in the Women's Division when, for the first time, individual trophies were awarded the team champions in volleyball, field hockey, basketball and softball instead of the bitterly fought-for President's Cup.

The Sigma Kappa Sorority welcomed these new trophies by capturing all four of them.

In the Men's Division, the Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity captured the coveted All-Campus trophy with an all sport total of 585-1/3 points. Kappa Alpha Fraternity was runner-up with 514 points.

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Dr. Guy Stevenson, Acting Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, also continues to hold his position as Director of the Graduate School and Head of the Department of Mathematics. Dr. Stevenson received his M.A. from Georgetown College and Ph.D. from the University of Illinois.

BELKNAP CAMPUS has been the home of the College of Arts and Sciences since 1924. Before this time it had been known as the Jefferson Seminary since 1798. The Arts and Sciences College is the largest and most varied school of the University and has continued to improve its physical facilities.

Though most of the students still come from Louisville and the neighboring areas, every section of the United States and numerous countries outside of America are represented in the College. The main attraction at Belknap Campus is the opportunity for a liberal education and training for the professional and graduate schools.

The Arts and Sciences Student Council, whose members are elected by the popular vote of the students, sponsors projects such as matchbooks listing outstanding University events and the Annual Spring Boatride. During the 1951 Boatride, the faculty gave an accurate dramatic satire on college students during classes. Pictured at the right is Dr. Moore and Dr. Burton, the lovers, who just got pinned. Under the paper is Dean Walker who finds sleep during class much more beneficial than listening to the lecture. Never fear, he'll wake up when the class is over—the alarm clock in his pocket is set for just the right time. Dean Threlkeld finds that by eating her lunch during class, she has much more time for extra-curricular activities.

DORMITORIES

ROBBINS HALL, immediately opposite the campus on Shipp Street, is an attractive residence which houses approximately thirty women students. The girls living in Robbins Hall have their own student government and their house mother, Miss Boldrick. During the year, the girls in Robbins Hall take an active part as an organization in the University activities. They sponsor several social events, such as their annual open house.

There are three dormitories for men on the campus of the University of Louisville, Leopold Hall, Otter Hall, and White Hall. The majority of men students who reside in the dormitories are athletes, Navy and Air Force students and students from foreign countries.

Card playing is a favorite sport with the athletes.

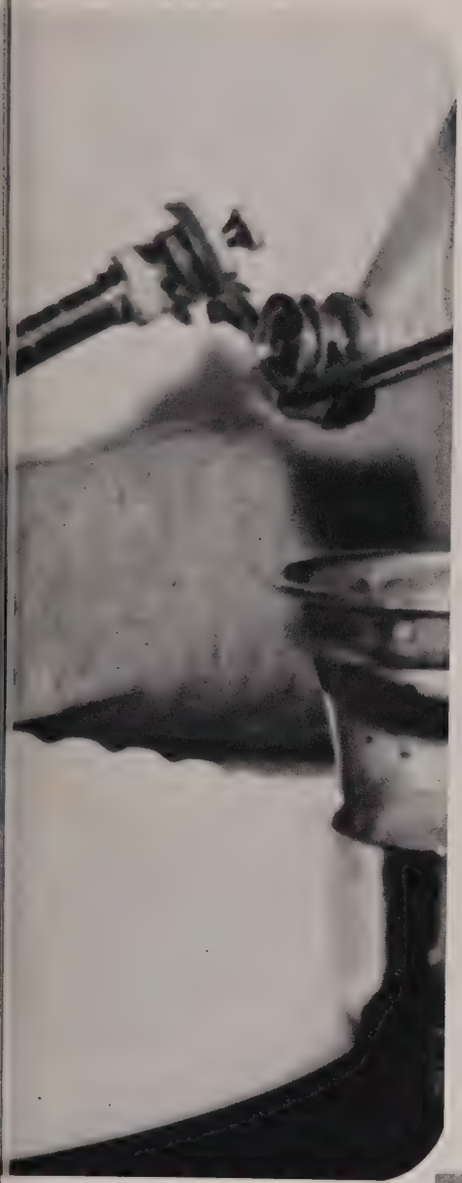

The telephone is used constantly to keep in contact with the off-campus world.

Students from foreign countries become well acquainted with their fellow students by living in the dormitory.

THE BRIEFING SERVICE, founded in 1936, marks one of the outstanding achievements of the University of Louisville Law School. This school is the first in the country to adopt such a plan.

Its functions are to render a research service to members of the Kentucky Bar whose libraries are inadequate to solve complicated legal problems, to give students a chance to familiarize themselves with pressing and everyday legal problems, and to foster a closer relationship with students and practicing members of the bar.

The Delta Theta Phi Law Fraternity, the largest legal fraternity in the United States, was founded in 1900. Today Delta Theta Phi has eighty-one active student senates, thirty-four active alumni senates, and a total membership of over 30,000.

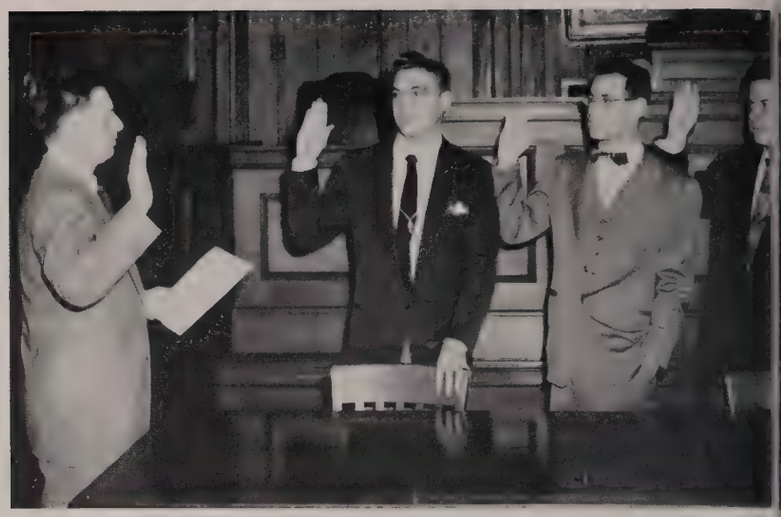

The Henry Clay Senate, located at the University of Louisville, was installed in 1948 and at present has a membership of forty law students. Its members are active in Law School activities, participating in the Moot Court Club and serving on the various Student Bar Association committees. Regular monthly dinner meetings are held and prominent local judges and lawyers are invited as guest speakers.

The Louisville Alumni Senate was installed in 1951 and has a membership of twenty-five. Dean A. C. Russell is Dean of the Alumni Senate.

The object of the Fraternity is to unite congenial students of the law, to lead them to high scholarship, and to advance the interest of every college of law of which this fraternity shall be associated.

ALPHA OMEGA ALPHA SCHOLASTIC HONORARY FRATERNITY

ALPHA OMEGA ALPHA, the national honorary scholarship society in medicine, elects to membership each year students in their third and fourth years who are outstanding in scholarship and character. Its purpose is to encourage personal honesty and the spirit of medical research. It is not a social organization and the custom is growing of devoting the chapter meetings to the presentation of clinical cases and scientific papers with discussion.

It is a non-secret, college medical honorary society. It was organized at the College of Medicine at the University of Illinois, Chicago, August 25, 1902 and is the only order of its kind in medical schools on this continent. There are forty-one active chapters representing nearly all of the institutions of the highest rank in Canada and the United States and it is only granted to those attaining such rank that charters will be granted.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Doctor Dwight Anderson has been Dean of the School of Music since 1937. He is also the head of the piano department and is considered one of the most outstanding piano teachers in the South. He studied with Frederick Schailer Evans at the Cincinnati Conservatory and did graduate work in New York and Paris. In 1941, the Cincinnati Conservatory conferred upon him an honorary doctorate degree. Among his many other duties, Dr. Anderson has found the time to be music editor of the Courier-Journal since 1944.

THE UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE SCHOOL OF MUSIC was founded in 1932. At this time, the school was located on Belknap Campus. In March, 1947, the estate, known as Gardencourt, was presented to the school by the Norton family. This magnificent mansion and its fourteen beautiful acres of gardens and lawns were gratefully accepted by the University and became the new home of the School of Music.

At present, the school offers the degree of Bachelor of Music and Bachelor of Music Education in piano, organ, the orchestral instruments, voice, music history, composition and piano pedagogy. Beginning in the summer of 1952, a master school will be established making it possible for the students to do post-graduate work.

IT WAS TOUGH GETTING STARTED . . .

It wasn't easy getting started. The Thoroughbred, like all other departments of the University, suffered a cut in its budget this year. Our solution to this problem was early deadlines for pictures in order to get minimum prices. Please accept these few words as an explanation for the many activities which could not be pictured in this publication.

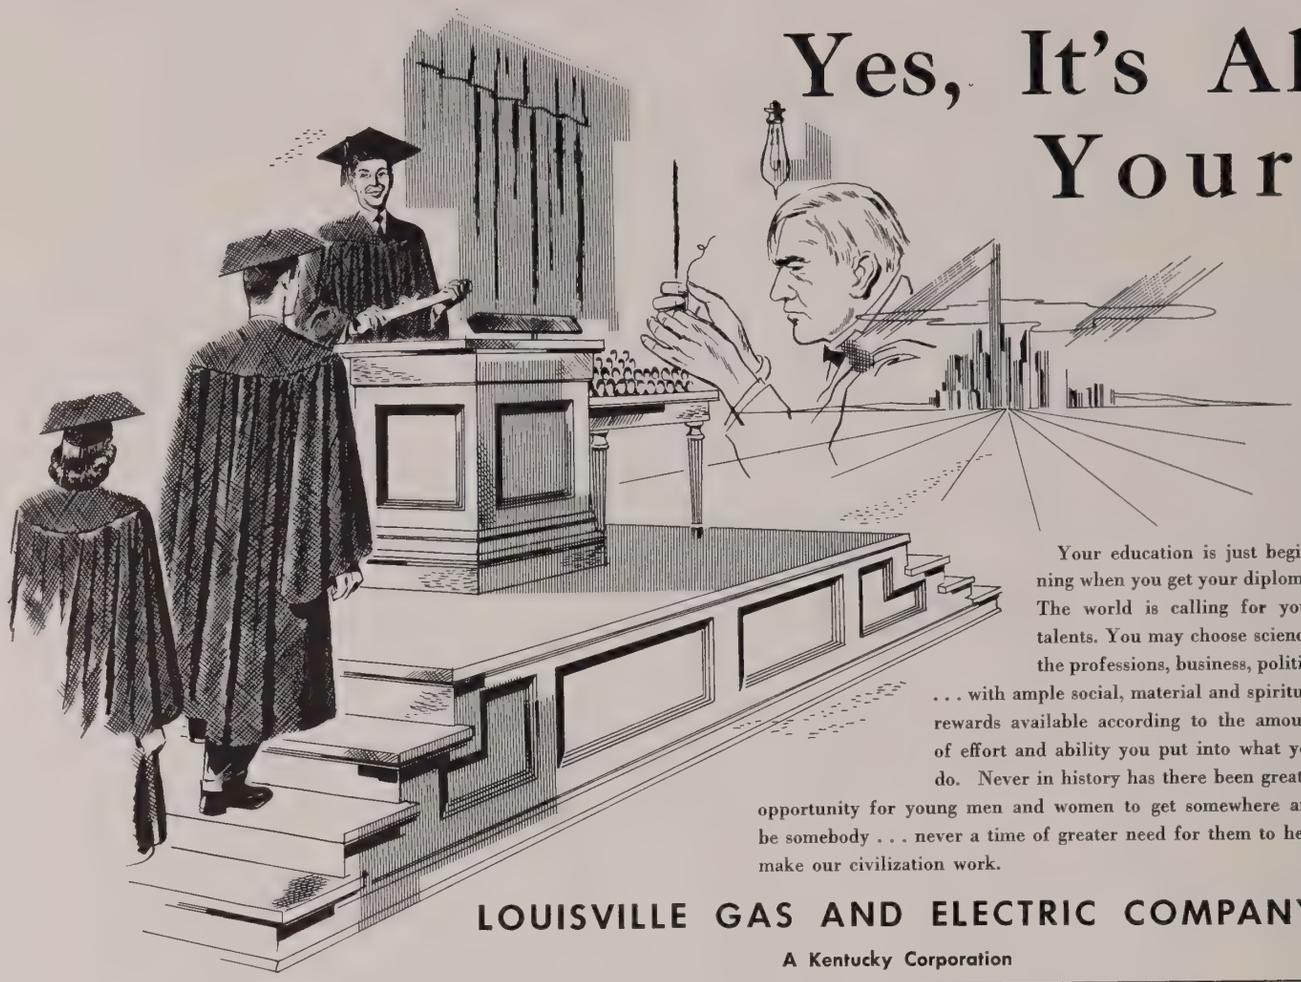

The Thoroughbred Staff would like to hand out a few bouquets to worthy people. We say "Thank you" to the administration for getting us an office. A special word of thanks goes to Mr. Morris Bein, Chairman of the Board of Student Publications, for his interest in the Thoroughbred and his understanding of the problems we faced. Mr. William Clark, representative for Indianapolis Engraving Company, and Mr. Stan Bryan, Kentucky Printing Corporation, deserve a word of praise for their many invaluable suggestions during the year. Thanks also to those of you who had to stand while the pictures were being arranged, and a big bouquet goes to those of you who offered a word of encouragement when the deadlines were too near for comfort.

Our last bouquet goes to our advertisers whose names appear on the following pages.

Personal, to the Reader . . .

In the pages which follow are the advertisements of the U of L minded local businesses. These firms are behind you because they support your University, and they are aware of this fact: to encourage the growth of a vital University is to encourage the growth of the community. So let these businesses know that you appreciate their interest in you by patronizing their products.

Yes, It's All Yours

Your education is just beginning when you get your diploma. The world is calling for your talents. You may choose science, the professions, business, politics . . . with ample social, material and spiritual rewards available according to the amount of effort and ability you put into what you do. Never in history has there been greater opportunity for young men and women to get somewhere and be somebody . . . never a time of greater need for them to help make our civilization work.

How to attract and HOLD patients

The comments of their friends, the impressions made by you, your office, and your treatment, are the measuring sticks those who come to you for treatment will employ in estimating your skill and professional standing. Impressions are therefore very important.

Bear in mind that almost all who will come to you have been in other dental offices. Consciously or subconsciously, comparisons will be made. You can mold these in your favor:

1. By making them feel welcome.
   Your waiting room, and your receptionist, if you will have one, are aids to this end.
2. By giving careful consideration to your greeting, your operating, and your personal appearance at all times.
3. By operating in a room so obviously modern and complete that it will be certain to inspire confidence.
   In other words your equipment speaks—will help make your patients want, feel proud, to refer their friends.
   Let us help you plan an office that will provide the maximum in functional efficiency, one that will be modern, look modern, today and tomorrow.

BUT WE CAME THROUGH WITH A FULL TANK!

The Thoroughbred came through with flying colors concerning the financial side and now that it's the end of the road some of the problems assume a humorous air as we review the year. The Thoroughbred Staff will long remember working together to present to you the 1952 Thoroughbred.

It's the end of the road for a great many other students too and to you we say . . . Don't forget to come back and visit the University of Louisville. The buildings may be different and none of us will be around but the kids that are here then will be the same. Keep in touch with your University. . . it's a University with a future.

Don't forget the stuff you've collected . . . the "L" sweater, the charred Thoroughbred from the remains of the SUB, your ticket stubs, the term papers that by chance sounded a lot like your friend's, the many no-break cards, the trophy you won, and the University of Louisville banner . . .

It's been fun having you with us for this tour of the campus. As the journalists say, this is "30". It's your book and may you find it a source of interest and amusement for many years.
